Tonight's Game

Tigers Host Defending Champs in First CIC Game

Fort Hays State and Omaha University—the pre-season choices to battle for the Central Intercollegiate Conference championship—launch their 1963 league schedules tonight.

Neither team is off to the start it hoped for. Defending CIC champion Omaha has won once and lost twice to date, topping a tough Idaho State team, 19-6, for the only triumph. That was sandwiched between a 33-25 upset loss to Morningside (Iowa) and an 18-7 setback at powerful Northern Illinois.

Fort Hays State is winless in three starts, with a 7-7 tie at Northwest Missouri State the top showing to date. The losses were to Colorado Western, 42-0, and nationally ranked Kearney State, 26-14.

Coach Al Caniglia's Omaha Indians have numerous incentives tonight. They want to start defense of their 1962 title with an impressive victory, and the Omahans are anxious to prove that pre-season predictions of a conference landslide were justified.

They also have vivid memories of last season, when Fort Hays State outfought them for a 20-20 tie at Omaha—the only blemish on the Indians' conference slate. FHS led, 20-13, until a disputed pass play in the closing seconds gave the hard-pressed Omahans the tie.

Heading the potent list of invaders tonight are all-CIC quarterback Carl Meyers, speed merchant Roger Sayers, hard-hitting fullback Wayne Backes and a mammoth and experienced defensive line that claims to be the biggest in college football.

Meyers currently leads the CIC in passing, averaging 109 yards per game through the air. Sayers, a constant breakaway threat, is the top pass receiver, with 216-pound end Jim Kettle close behind. Backes is the top rusher and ranks third in the CIC in that department.

The defensive line features the league's biggest player, 6-5, 296-pound Jack Petersen; twin titans Brian and Kevin Kadow (261 and 251); Tom Luby (235), and linebacker-lineman Jim Jones, a 6-4, 240-pounder. That line will average from 250 to 261 pounds per man, depending on the personnel in the lineup.

Meanwhile, Fort Hays State hopes to come up with another top effort against a heavily favored club—as the Tigers did last week in the loss to Kearney. An upset victory would be a fitting climax to the annual Band and Parents' Day that has brought thousands to Hays today.

The Tiger ground game leads the CIC, and the rushing defense ranks second. But in passing offense and defense, the Bengals fall to the bottom of the rankings.

Individually, Steve Worley, 200-pound fullback, is the CIC's top rusher to date. Max VanLaningham, billed as the shortest college quarterback in captivity, will guide the attack at quarterback, with converted halfback Larry Bates and freshman Bob Johnson in reserve.

Next Week

It's never easy to be the guest team at another school's homecoming, but that situation faces the Tigers next week. They travel to Pittsburg for the Pitt homecoming, meeting the Gorillas at 2 p.m. Saturday. Coach Carnie Smith's Gorilla teams are always solid, and the current squad has a 2-2 record after a shaky start. Pitt seeks revenge for the 25-50 upset loss suffered at the FHS Homecoming last fall.

This Game in History . . .

One year ago . . .

FHS had the heavily favored Indians on the ropes with a 20-13 lead and just seconds to play, but untimely penalties and a disputed pass play gave OU a 20-20 tie. Jim Lee led the Tigers with two touchdowns and 103 yards rushing and figured in 25 tackles. A Carl Meyers-to-Paul Blazeovich pass with 12 seconds left gave the home team the tie. Two consecutive 15-yard penalties on FHS moved OU into scoring position.

Annual Band and Parents' Day Attracts Thousands

Tonight's game climaxes the annual Band Day and Parents' Day observance at Fort Hays State College, one of the top attractions at FHS during each football season.

Today and tonight, more than 2,000 high school musicians from 40 schools and more than 1,500 parents of FHS students visited the campus and took part in the day's activities.

Fort Hays State's football band is the host group for Band Day activities, coordinated by Lyle Dilley, director of bands at FHS.

The Tiger band organized the Band Day parade this afternoon and presents the pre-game show tonight. The football band numbers 107 marching members, including the new Bannerettes flag corps of 21 attractive FHS coeds. The entire group is led by solo twirler Sharon Hen-

Tonight's Halftime Show

Two outstanding high school bands present the halftime show tonight.

Dodge City High School's 135-piece band, directed by Howard Harms, features the "Boot Hill Boomer," a 10-foot bass drum. Dodge City was the Kansas representative in the Rose Bowl parade in 1961 and marched in Meredith Willson's "Music Man," an Iowa festival.

Lakin High School's 65-piece group is directed by Harold Waldrum. It is one of Western Kansas' outstanding marching units and holds numerous high ratings in district and state contests.

derson, drum major Hayden Hitchcock and twirlers Lynn Blomendahl, Ola Kearney, Leanna Yates and Connie Leuty.

Other band activities today included a marching festival this morning, a mass band demonstration beginning at noon, the parade this afternoon and the halftime show tonight.

Parents were also busy throughout the day with registration this morning, a special parents' program early this afternoon and a reception through much of the afternoon. They also visited residence halls and Greek houses.

Tiger, Indian Defensive Starters---Unsung Heroes

Under the unlimited substitution rules followed by members of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, most NAIA teams—including tonight's two opponents—employ the platoon system, using as many players as possible. For this reason, defensive starters become "first team" players just as much as the more publicized offensive stars. Because the centerspread of this program does not permit listing defensive starters, they are presented here:

The School . . .

The University of Omaha, founded 54 years ago, is one of the few strictly municipal universities remaining in the nation. It became a municipally-supported school in 1931.

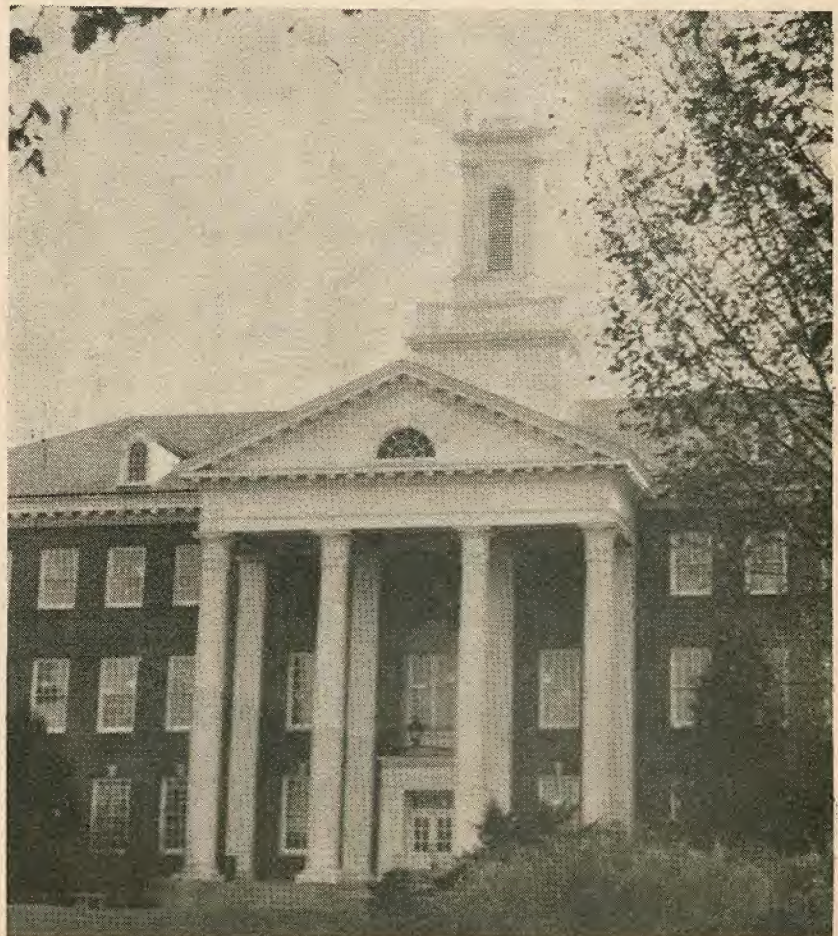

Featuring unique advantages for night classes and other part-time study, OU has an enrollment of 8,138 students. Of these, less than half—3,632—are full-time students.

Organized on a semester basis, the institution is divided into five colleges, including an outstanding business administration offering. A graduate division, an extensive adult education program and summer sessions round out the program.

The vast majority of OU students are from Omaha and its suburbs, but a steadily increasing number of outstate Nebraskans and out-of-state students help boost the total enrollment.

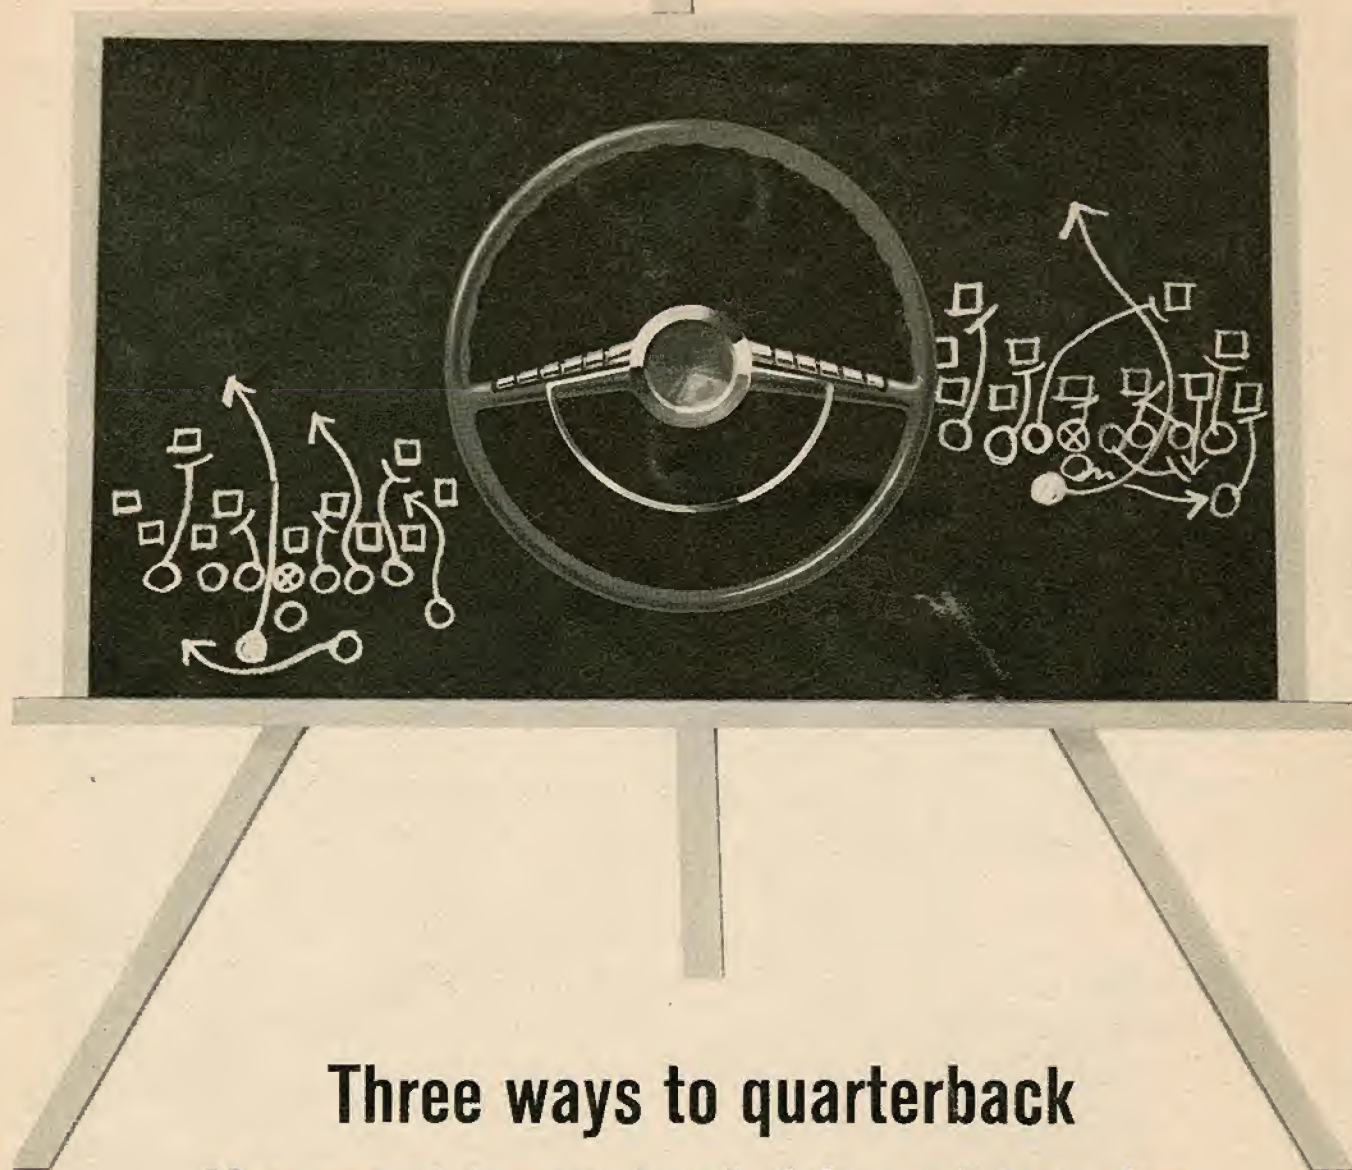

Originally located on the west fringe of Omaha, the city has grown around the University, though it is still about four miles from downtown Omaha.

OU boasts of another unique feature—all five main buildings on the campus are completely air-conditioned. OU says it is the only known institution in the world that can make this claim.

Three ways to quarterback the most important drive of the day —your drive home

1. Don't buck the line of traffic, stay in it. Fancy open field running doesn't pay on the highway.
2. When dusk falls and your visibility is limited, slow down and turn on your lights. What you can't see can hurt you.
3. Don't try to beat the clock by speeding. Remember, when time runs out on the highway, everybody loses.
